

RLMS Announcements for Thursday, April 24, 2014

Good morning everyone...please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

1. Summer School class offering brochures are out. The information is also available on the district's web page. If you would like a brochure, please ask your 1st period teacher or stop in the office. Be sure to take a close look at this summer's offerings...there is a wide assortment of classes available to middle school students. Registration for classes will begin May 1st.
2. This week is Tornado & Severe Weather Awareness Week in Wisconsin. To stay abreast of proper safety measures related to a possible tornado, we will be taking part in a MOCK tornado drill this afternoon at approximately 2 pm. Prior to the drill, staff members are asked to review evacuation procedures with students. If there are not signs posted in your classrooms related to evacuation procedures, please let the office know.
3. 6th grade volleyball will practice today after school at the elementary. 7th & 8th grade will practice tonight from 6-7:30 pm at the elementary.
4. Washington, D.C., students are reminded that your final trip payment is due on Monday.
5. Happy birthday today to Caitlyn Fitzl & Miguel Holguin Uribe.
6. Have a good day.
