

RLMS Announcements for Wednesday, November 18, 2015

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Today is Day #2 for enrichment study halls, individual band lessons & 6th grade band. All woodwind beginner band students should meet with Mr. Robisch during 3rd period today.
3. Students planning on missing school during hunting season will need to fill out a Family Trip form prior to their absence. It is expected that homework is completed prior to your absence. Forms are available in the office.
4. If you are unhappy with your school pictures or if you were absent on picture day, re-takes are tomorrow. If needed, forms are available on the counter in the office.
5. By wearing red today you are taking a stand against underage drinking. Instead of telling your friends, teammates or peers NOT to drink, tell them WHY they should not drink underage. For example, a large percent of bone development happens in the teen years, while binge drinking disrupts hundreds of genes involved in bone formation. In athletics, injury rates more than double in alcohol users vs. those who do not use. Thank you to those who support taking a stand against underage drinking.
6. Thank you to all middle school students and staff that took part in Primetime this morning.
7. Any middle school girl interested in being on this year's Girls' Basketball Team should meet with Mr. Adams today during lunch in his classroom.
8. Fundraiser candy check out will begin on Friday. Please speak to your parents to decide if they would like you taking part in this year's fundraiser.
9. There are no birthdays today at the middle school.
10. Have a Wonderful Wednesday!
