

RLMS Announcements for Thursday, April 14, 2016

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Today is Day #5 for band lessons and enrichment study halls. Mrs. Burns, Mr. Dobbs, Mrs. Geisler & Mrs. Giese's enrichment study halls have activity period today. At 11:18 am, eligible students in those study halls should report to the gym. Ineligible students in those study halls should report to Mr. Dobbs' room for a study hall. Students are eligible if their name is on the yellow "meeting academic requirements" posters located throughout the building.
3. 8th grade students interested in learning how to work as a member of a healthcare team in a fun filled day of health related career exploration are invited to attend a health career exploration day at NTC in Wausau this Saturday. If you are interested, see Mrs. Simurdiak for registration materials.
4. Governor Walker has declared April 11-15, 2016 as Wisconsin's Tornado & Severe Weather Awareness Week. Today at 1:30 pm we will be running a Tornado Drill to practice what you should do if severe weather would strike. Your classroom teachers will be reminding you that when you hear the signal you should go to the specified location, crouch low, head down and protect the back of your head with your arms. You will stay in the specified location until you are informed to go back to your classroom.
5. Summer School brochures are out. Remind your parents to go through them and beginning May 6th register you for classes. The brochure is also available on the school district website.
6. Good luck to our RLMS band students as they travel to Abbotsford this afternoon for Band Festival. Musicians will be dismissed via the intercom when Mr. Robisch calls the office (approximately 2 pm). You must be in your concert attire before leaving the middle school.
7. There are no birthdays today at the middle school.
8. Have a Thrilling Thursday.
