

RLMS Announcements for Wednesday, April 27, 2016

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Today is Day #1 for band lessons and enrichment study halls.
3. Washington, DC students are reminded you have class tomorrow after school. Be sure to have a ride home.
4. Summer School brochures are out. Be sure to look through them and select classes you will be interested in. Registration opens May 6th, 9 am. The brochure is available on the office counter or the school district website.
5. Mr. Cardey is reminding all students that when you arrive at school in the morning you are to enter the middle school building and stay inside. You are not allowed to loiter outside the building or leave school property.
6. Any current 7th or 8th grader interested in being a HAWKS Cheerleader next school year, please sign up in the office.
7. Middle schoolers are reminded that you will be testing tomorrow during periods 3 & 4. Be sure to get plenty of rest tonight, eat a good breakfast tomorrow morning and bring your earbuds.
8. Congratulations to all middle schoolers for your hard work in preparing the exhibits for last night's Fine Arts Night and for the fine performance during the band concert.
9. Any middle school student considering playing football next season should attend an informational meeting on Friday during Enrichment Study Hall in the High School Commons. Even if you are only considering playing football, you should attend the meeting. See Mr. Krommenacker if you have questions.
10. There are no birthdays today at the middle school.
11. Have a Wonderful Wednesday.
