

RLMS Announcements for Monday, September 15, 2014

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Today should be a very relaxing day for many as I see a large number of students took part in the pajama dress up day. Tomorrow, everyone participating in fake injury day will earn points for their homeroom. There will be a Student Council meeting today during enrichment study hall time in Mrs. Burns' classroom.
3. CLC begins today. Hours are Monday-Friday, 7:30-8 am. Monday-Thursday, 3:30-5:30 pm. CLC is held in the IMC.
4. Best of luck to all Hawks Cross Country runners for today's meet in Stratford. Runners should be dismissed at 2:10 pm today for a 2:20 bus departure. All runners should have t-shirt orders turned in by tonight. Last week, the Hawks middle school boys placed 1st & the girls placed 2nd at their meet in Phillips. Tomorrow finds our volleyball team at Marathon and our football team at Chequamegon.
5. Be sure to remind your parents of tonight's open house at the middle school. Pizza will be served at 6:30 pm, the program begins at 6:50 pm.
6. Later today a "meeting academic requirements poster" will be posted in the hallways. This list is part of the RLMS program. Names on the list are those middle school students that completed all of their assignments last week. If you have questions about this process, ask your teachers or the office.
7. New 8th period study hall assignments will begin today. All staff members have a list of the students in their 8th period study halls. Please inform students of this information prior to 8th period.
8. Happy birthday today to Mr. Iverson.
9. Have a good day!
