

RLMS Announcements for Tuesday, September 16, 2014

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. It was nice to see many students and parents at the middle school open house last night. We hope that everyone found the evening informative.
3. How interesting to see the many fake injuries today from those of you taking part in student council sponsored homecoming activities. To earn points for your homeroom tomorrow you will have to dress up like a nerd. Homerooms will meet today during enrichment study hall time to plan for floats and banners for the parade and to sign up for activities during Friday's pep rally.
4. Choir lessons start this week. Lessons and class will be held in the high school science lab.
5. Good luck to our middle school volleyball and football teams as they both have competitions today. The volleyball players may be dismissed at 2:50 pm for a 3 pm departure to Marathon. Football players may be dismissed at 2:20 pm for a 2:30 pm departure to Chequamegon. Great job to all the Hawks cross country runners as they ran hard at the Stratford invitational last night. Both the boys and girls teams finished 6th overall.
6. There are no birthdays today at the middle school.
7. Have a good day!
