

RLMS Announcements for Friday, September 19, 2014

1. Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. It's great to look out over a sea of maroon and gold... proclaiming Hawks territory! Thank you to all middle schoolers that took part in this week's dress up activities, earning points for their homerooms. Today, after 2nd period, eligible students will report to their homerooms to work on their floats and banners until lunch. After lunch students report back to their homeroom for a scavenger hunt. We will walk downtown for the parade at 12:49 pm. After the parade we will have more activities at the softball field. Students that are ineligible for today's activities due to incomplete assignments should report to the IMC with work at 9:44 am today.
3. Congratulations to our middle school volleyball teams on last night's play against Prentice. The 7th grade won 1 match and lost 2 matches. The 8th grade won 2 matches and lost 1. Both volleyball and cross country teams see action again Monday night. Due to homecoming activities, there will be NO middle school cross country, volleyball or football practice today.
4. There is no CLC after school today.
5. Happy birthday tomorrow to Mrs. Burns.
6. Have a good weekend!
