

Student Health Services

The following health services are provided to students.

Vision screening

In the fall of each year, vision screening is performed by the Taylor County Health Department nurses. Vision screening is done on all elementary students